Preface.

THE Registers of Baptisms, Marriages, and Burials from 1559—1812 are contained in three volumes, referred to hereafter as A, B, and C.

Register A was a parchment volume stitched in a cover of parchment, and measured 11½ inches in length by 8 in width. It was in a very fragmentary condition, as the photograph taken by the Editor will shew. The present Vicar, the Rev. Arthur Carr, M.A. Oxon, has had each leaf of the Register most carefully repaired and inset on thick paper, and where holes appear on the leaves such leaves are covered with silk net, so as to preserve them from falling to pieces. The leaves thus inset all round are bound in a strong cover, enlarging the size of the volume to 14¾ inches in length by 10 in width. The work was most successfully carried out under the superintendence of Mr. James W. Metcalfe of the Binding Department of Messrs. Eyre and Spottiswoode at the British Museum.

The Editor cannot pass further without recording the thoughtfulness of a previous Vicar, the Rev. Wm. Jackson, who held the living 1730—1754, in making an abbreviated copy of the Register containing the entries from 4 October 1559 to 12 September 1745. This copy is hereafter referred to as "Paper-copy Register B." Such copy appears to have been made circa 1745. The existence of this copy has supplied blanks caused by the decay of the Parchment Register, and any extracts or variations are printed in italics.

The Register contains entries of—

Baptisms from 26 January 1560 to 21 July 1745.
Marriages from 6 May 1561 to 3 July 1745.
Burials from 4 October 1559 to 12 September 1745.

Register B is a paper volume bounded in a strong parchment cover with engraved brass corners, an engraved brass oval ornament in the centre, and was fitted with two brass clasps, both of which are now missing. This volume is referred to as "Paper-copy Register B" so far as it contains copies of the entries from 1559 to 1745, but on the 27th April 1746 a note in the margin states, "Here is begun this new Register," and it consequently becomes Register B. The edges of this Register have been carefully repaired, and the whole rebound in its original cover. It measures 15¼ inches in length by 10 in width. It contains entries of—

Baptisms, 12 January 1745—6 December 1767. [There are entries from 1768—1779 which appear in Register C.]
Marriages, 24 August 1748—13 January 1754.
Burials, 27 April 1746—18 January 1772. [There is one entry recorded for 1779, but it appears in Register C.]

Register C is a paper volume with parchment cover, fitted with two engraved clasps. On the front is a leather label, stamped in gold letters, "Register | Addington | Surrey | 1773." The Baptisms in the front are written on ruled paper, the Marriages in the centre are written on printed forms (with Banns on ruled paper), and the Burials at the end are written on ruled paper. It contains entries of—

Baptisms, 21 August 1768—20 December 1812.
Banns, 1774—1843.
Marriages, 22 August 1773—7 December 1812.
Burials, 2 February 1773—31 December 1812.

contained in this Volume, a reference is given to the same by a footnote under the Burial entries.

Readers interested in the Leigh family are referred to the able Paper, with Sheet Pedigrees, contributed by the late Granville Leveson-Gower, F.S.A., contained in vol. vii. of the Surrey Archæological Collections, published in 1880, and also to the "Visitations of Surrey in 1530, 1572, and 1623," by the Editor, contained in vol. xliii. of the ordinary Publications of the Harleian Society, published in 1899.

The Registers have been paged throughout for convenience of reference. All blank spaces and pages are noted. Everything within brackets [ ] in ordinary type will be understood as explanatory interpolations by the Editor.

The best thanks of the Society are tendered to the Rev. Arthur Carr, M.A., the Vicar, for allowing the Registers to be printed, and for the facilities he has kindly afforded the Editor in making the transcript. Special thanks are accorded to him for the restoration of Register A. The Editor's thanks are tendered to the Vicar and Mrs. Carr for many acts of kindness and hospitality so kindly extended to him during the progress of the Work.

In conclusion, the best thanks of the Society and all its Members are due to Mrs. Carr for kindly bearing the cost of re-cutting the inscription on, and supplying a new brass with inscription in the matrix of portland stone, which was erected to the memory of Mrs. Frances Lesly, the wife of the Rev. James Lesly, who was Vicar of the parish during 1628—1652. The inscription on the brass was taken from Aubrey's "History of Surrey," vol. ii., p. 43. The work was very creditably carried out by Messrs. Gawthorp and Sons of 16 Long Acre, London, W.C.

Preface.

THE Registers of Baptisms, Marriages, and Burials from 1653—1812 are contained in five volumes, referred to hereafter as A, B, C, D, and E.

Register A was a parchment volume stitched in a thin cover of parchment, and measured 10½ inches in length by 3 in width. It has since been re-stitched on end papers to enable the writing to be read, and rebound in a most careful manner by Messrs. Eyre and Spottiswoode at the British Museum. It now measures in its new cover 10⅞ inches in length by 4½ in width.

It contains intermixed entries of Baptisms, Marriages, and Burials—including six entries of Baptisms (1669—1678), a Marriage (1678), and a Burial (1 October 1680) relating to "CHELSHAM," a Chapelry of Warlingham, which has been printed in italic type (except the Burial entry which is contained in the Chelsham Register) for convenience of reference in the Volume of the CHELSHAM Registers issued by the Surrey Parish Register Society for 1907. Also an Inventory of certain goods presented by the Rev. Joseph Abel, Vicar, in 1715 to the Chaplain's House of the Hospital of Warlingham, and entries of Briefs from 1707—1718.

Register B is a parchment volume (with some sheets of paper in the front and end) bound in a parchment cover, fitted with two brass clasps, and measures 8 inches in length by 6⅝ in width. It contains entries of—

Marriages, 29 January 1733—18 February 1749.
Baptisms, 12 November 1727—23 September 1787.
Burials, 29 August 1731—30 January 1789.

The Marriages and Baptisms are at one end of the volume and the Burials at the other.

It also contains a List of Fees that belong to the Vicar, Briefs for the years 1760, 1761, 1779, some Memoranda as to the rebuilding of the Curate's House, the Induction of a Parish Clerk, and a List of Vicars.

The Editor has printed in this Volume in italic type an entry of a Baptism on 23 March 1755 at Warlingham, which is only contained in the CHELSHAM Register "A."

Register C is a parchment volume bound in a parchment cover, fitted with two brass clasps, the top one of which is missing, and measures $13\frac{1}{4}$ inches in length by $8\frac{1}{2}$ in width. It contains—

Banns, 1759—1808.
Marriages, 30 March 1755—15 February 1808.

Register D is a paper volume of printed forms bound in brown leather, and measures $15\frac{1}{8}$ inches in length by 10 in width. It contains—

Banns, 1808—1812.
Marriages, 28 November 1808—19 October 1812.

Register E is a parchment volume bound in a parchment cover, fitted with two brass clasps, and measures $8\frac{1}{8}$ inches in length by $6\frac{3}{4}$ in width. It contains—

Baptisms, 28 October 1787—1 December 1812.
Burials, 10 April 1789—20 July 1812.

The Baptisms are entered at one end of the book and the Burials at the other.

The Registers have been paged throughout in pencil for convenience of reference. All blank spaces and pages are noted. None of the volumes call for any special remark. Everything within brackets [ ] will be understood as explanatory interpolations by the Editor.

The best thanks of the Society are tendered to the Rev. G. R. Macaulay, M.A. Oxon, the Vicar, for allowing the Registers to be printed, and for the facilities he has kindly afforded the Editor in making the transcript. The Editor's thanks are tendered to the Vicar and his very able and courteous Churchwarden, C. H. Goodman, Esq., for many acts of kindness and hospitality so kindly extended to him during the progress of the Work.

Register C.

[Parchment.]

MARRIAGES.

[Memorandum.—In Register C are entries of publication of Banns of Marriage. The entries have been carefully checked with the Register of Marriages and are identified with the mark ||.

The entries of marriages from 1755 have been somewhat shortened from the printed form then introduced by omitting some of the printed portion after the first entry, which is printed in full. The name of the Clergyman officiating, as well as those of the witnesses, are given. In entries where no locality is named it is to be understood that the parties were both, or either of them, of the parish of Warlingham. The following abbreviations have been adopted throughout: B. for Bachelor; S. for Spinster; W. for Widow and Widower. Any discrepancies in the signatures of the contracting parties are noticed, and it is to be assumed that they signed unless it appears otherwise.—Editor.]
